

BWP New Life Auction 2025

Terms and conditions

1. Belgian Warmblood vzw – BWP (hereafter: organiser) will organise a hybrid auction, the BWP New Life Auction. The BWP New Life Auction will take place on the 8 of March 2025. The hybrid auction takes place under the supervision of a civil-law notary, assisted by the auctioneer appointed by BWP.
2. If one takes part in this auction, one agrees to these auction terms and agreements explicitly and unconditionally. To take part in this hybrid auction, the buyer must register himself at www.bwp.auction. By this registration, one agrees to these auction terms and agreements.
3. The seller gives BWP the task to sell an embryo/a broodmare on account of the seller applied by the general conditions.
4. The embryos and broodmares are accompanied by the necessary certificates. (Embryo – broodmare + pregnancy)
5. Bidding and payments are made in euro.
6. The sale occurs by auction to the highest bidder by payment of the purchase price and if needed VAT, and 10% commission surcharge (ex-VAT). The purchase is made according to Belgian law. The auction terms and conditions are part of the purchase agreement.
7. If an embryo is assigned, the legal risk transfers to the buyer. The buyer should take out his own insurance for this risk. The seller stays owner of the embryo/the broodmare until the full payment of all the invoices according to art. 8.
8. After the auction, the buyer will receive a settlement via email, together with two invoices to be paid (one on the name of BWP and one in the name of the seller). The invoice on the name of BWP includes the premium of 10%, increased by VAT. If the seller is subject to VAT, they are mentioned on the auction website. The invoices have to be paid before the due time mentioned on the invoice. In the case of non-payment, an interest of 10% per year will be due in justice and without notice of default. Moreover, a damage claim of 10% of the amount due, with a minimum of 65,00 will be charged.
9. When the natural mother herself carries her embryo, the mare, after payment of both invoices, remains with the seller. The foal is born at the seller's premises. The delivery of the foal cannot take place before the foal has reached the age of 150 days. When a surrogate mare carries the embryo, the surrogate mare moves to the buyer after payment of both invoices. The surrogate mare remains the property of the seller. The value of the broodmare is 4000 euro incl.VAT. It will be billed after 200 days from the birth of the embryo or expire when the surrogate mare is returned. After prior notification, the surrogate mare shall be returned by the buyer to the seller, in good health, dewormed and vaccinated, at the latest 6 months after the birth of the foal. All costs of transporting the surrogate mare back to the seller will be borne by the buyer. The foal always carries in its name the suffix of the buyer's stable, unless otherwise agreed between the seller and the buyer.

10. The seller will deliver the broodmare/the surrogate dam/ foal to the buyer, provided that the place of delivery is in Belgium. The modalities of delivery/collection shall be arranged by the buyer directly with the seller.
11. The organiser is not liable for possible erroneous information in the catalogue or on the website.
12. The organiser does not guarantee the gender of a sexed embryo. There is never 100% certainty about the gender of a sexed embryo.
13. In the case of export of a horse, the buyer will submit valid transport documents within the year, on forfeiture of a penal sum consisting of the VAT as yet to be charged.
14. The organisation will definitively decide on any disputes that may arise regarding the sale during the auction procedure.
15. If after the auction a difference would arise regarding the sale, only the district-courts of Leuven, department of Leuven, are competent, The Belgian law is applicable.

The English version of these auction conditions is a translation of the Dutch text. Only the Dutch text has a binding effect in this respect. The translation of these auction conditions into another language is purely informative.

ADDENDUM

AUCTION CONDITIONS FOR ONLINE BIDDING AT THE BELGIAN WARMBLOOD AUCTION

By making a bid via internet, the bidder accepts unconditionally the mentioned auction and sales conditions, as well as the conditions below, which are also applicable to the BELGIAN WARMBLOOD AUCTION ONLINE.

Auctioning party : Belgian Warmblood, Waversebaan 99, B-3050 Oud-Heverlee

Terms and conditions :

1. Every bid, expressed by a participant, is, just like a bid on the spot, irrevocable and unconditional.
2. For determining if a bid in the auction has first been made by an internet participant or by a bidder on the spot, the judgement of the auctioneer is binding.
3. Any participant is aware of the fact, and agrees with it, that the services offered by the auctioning party are limited to technically facilitating a) following the BWP New Life Auction via internet and b) participating in the BWP New Life Auction as a bidder.
4. The participant is aware of the fact, and explicitly agrees, that the services available via the website are limited to making it technically possible to follow the auction and to participate in the auction as a bidder. Belgian Warmblood - BWP vzw does not have or take any responsibility in the organization and the course of the auction via its website (for instance, and without wanting to be limitative : the website drops out or reacts slowly during the auction). Belgian Warmblood - BWP vzw takes every possible effort to secure its systems against loss of data and/or any form of unlawful use, and takes the appropriate technical and organizational measures. In his/her contact with Belgian Warmblood - BWP vzw the participant is obliged to adequately secure his/her computer and/or any other device used to have access to the auction site, and as usual to protect them from viruses or other illegal programmes or sites which can be spread via internet.
5. When the participant in the auction makes a bid via the internet, that bid has equal legal effect as a bid on the spot.
6. In order to be allowed to make a digital bid in the auction, the participant may be asked by the auctioning party to transfer an internet security. In that case, the participant has to meet that request before he can be accepted to participate.
7. By making a bid via internet, the participant declares to know the procedure of deposit, securing and release of the internet deposit and declares to accept that procedure.
8. If the participant is, for whatever reason, not capable of meeting his obligation to take possession of the auction object, the caused damage will be recovered from him by the auctioning party, in the first place, but not exclusively, from an internet deposit.
9. The participant declares to possess a mobile phone with which sms-messages can be received. During the auction, the participant must be attainable for the auctioneer, the auctioning party and the auction organizer.
10. The auction organization reserves the right to give up the implementation of a specific auction via internet, for whatever reason and at any moment.
11. The auction organization has the competence to modify this registration declaration. The participant will every time have the right to refuse the altered stipulations. In that case, the auctioning party has the right to directly stop its service to the participant. From that moment, the participant will no longer be able to participate in auctions (via internet).

12. When the participant wants a service which causes an unusual transaction in the sense of Wwft, the auction organization, the auctioning party and/or the auction has the obligation to communicate that to a central reporting. It is not permitted to communicate that to the participant.

DECLARATION CONCERNING THE AVAILABILITY OF PERSONAL DATA

The personal data communicated by the participant may only be used for the above mentioned registration which allows to take part in bidding via internet. The auctioning party, and also the notaries involved in an auction, can ask for and have insight in all data made available by the participant. The above mentioned personal data of the participant may only be passed on to third parties in so far as this is necessary for bidding in the auction. The above mentioned personal data of the participant may not be sold, let or otherwise given to third parties. The participant gives his consent for the visibility of his data to all collaborators of the auctioning party and other parties connected to the internet bidding system.
